

<http://www.y3technologies.com>
4 Fourth Lok Yang Road Singapore

Job Title: Java Programmer

Reporting to: New Project and Technologies

Main Job Functions

We are currently looking for Java programmer(s) that will work closely with the project team and product development team.

You will be responsible for understanding and delivering technical and functional design and perform necessary tasks such as code, test and implement software applications in a open source application. Consumer experience and mobile application experience is a plus

Requirements:

Bachelors Degree in Computer Science or equivalent practical experiences, combined with accomplished object oriented programming, software/system architecture and design, software integration and the utilization of frameworks and design patterns. Experience with Financial, Health Care applications or Supply Chain is considered a plus.

- 3+ years experience on Java programming, Spring and Hibernate framework
- 3+ years experience on Wicket programming is a plus
- 3+ years hands-on experience with Web application development, java development and object oriented development. Must have production knowledge on Oracle database and/or in SQL with good understanding of data models is preferred.
- Experience with a rules engine such as JESS or Drools (preferred but not mandatory)
- Experience with XML and Web Service concepts (preferred but not mandatory)
- Experience in product development (preferred but not mandatory)

Soft skills Requirement:

Passionate to get things done and highly motivated; good communication and writing skills; open-minded and a fast learner